

Podere “Isola di Cortona” Tuscany (Italy)

“...in Cortona, an oasis of tranquillity in the Tuscan countryside, impressive rural homes with historical tradition.”

*La casa del mezzajolo
The mezzajolo's house*

Cortona e Casali

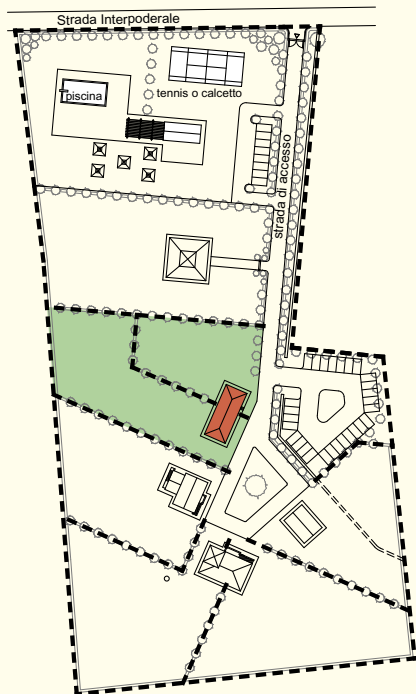

Via Coppi, 8 - 52044 Cortona (Arezzo)

tel. +39.0575.63.10.28

web: www.cortonaecasali.com - email: info@cortonaecasali.com

La casa del mezzajolo

The mezzajolo's house

In this large house lived the mezzajolo and his family. The mezzajolo was an important figure during the reclamation of the Valdichiana, which occurred in the 18th century.

The coat of arms of St. John the Baptist, which can still be seen in the middle of the facade, shows that the Isola settlement once belonged to the Granduca's farm system.

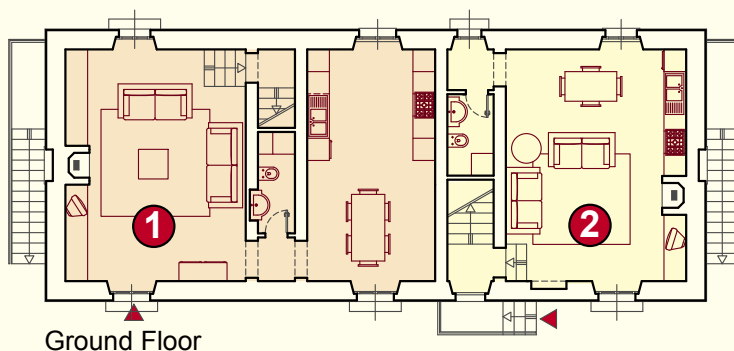

UNIT "1"

156 sq. m. on two stories.

Ground floor: spacious living room with fireplace, eat-in kitchen and a half-bath.

First floor: 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms.

Storage-room in the basement and private garden of 1,424 sq.m.

Ground Floor

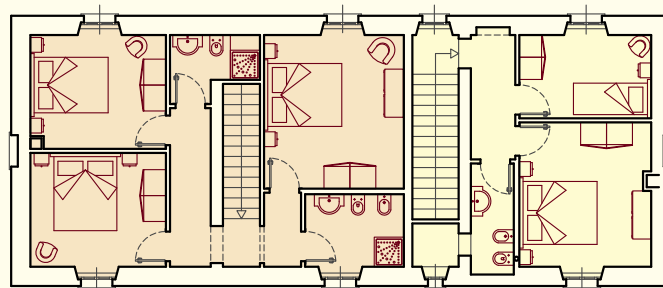

UNIT "2"

104 sq.m. on two stories.

Ground floor: spacious multipurpose room (living, dining, kitchen) with fireplace and a half-bath.

First floor: two rooms and a bath.

Storage-room in the basement and private garden of 892 sq.m.

First Floor

Cortona e Casali

Via Coppi, 8 - 52044 Cortona (Arezzo)

tel. +39.0575.63.10.28

web: www.cortonaecasali.com - email: info@cortonaecasali.com